

Pertussis Containing Vaccine List

Table 1 lists vaccines likely to appear in case-patients' vaccination histories. Immunization registries, provider records, and parents are the best sources of this information.

Table 1. Pertussis-containing vaccines
Pertussis-Containing Vaccines for Children	Brand	Licensed Date and Used For
DTaP	INFANRIX® DAPTACEL® Tripedia®	First licensed in 1991; used for all childhood doses
DTaP+Hib	TriHiBit®	Used for the fourth dose only
DTap+IPV+HepB	PEDIARIX®	Used for the first three doses
DTap+IPV+Hib	PENTACEL™	Approved in 2008; used for primary four-dose series
DTap+IPV	KINRIX™	Approved in 2008; used for booster dose at 4-6 years
Pertussis-Containing Vaccines for Adolescents and Adults	Brand	Licensed Date
Tdap	ADACEL® BOOSTRIX®	First available in 2005
Other Vaccines	Brand	Licensed Date
Pertussis Only		Not available in the U.S.
DT/Td	DECAVAC™ TENIVAC™	Do not contain pertussis; DT used for primary series when pertussis vaccination was not desired; Td used in persons aged ≥7 years